Henry Miller: Tropic of Cancer - Creating the 'New Man' Out of Chaos (Henry Miller: Hero and Visionary) Barry L. Russell

Tropic of Cancer, Miller's first Paris book, has never really been understood by the critics or anyone else for that matter, simply because what he said is not something that most people think about. Only the damned souls of artists like himself, who suffered the loss of everything, know what goes into a great artistic masterpiece. The act of writing, Tropic of Cancer, changed Miller's perceptions of life and love forever. It was the book that made him into a 'new kind of man' out of his own and the world's chaos.
