This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1855 edition. Excerpt: ... PART III. THE APPLICATION; on, A VOICE TO MANKIND. The Human Race is composed of three distinct parts .lasses, or societies. The poor, ignorant, enslaved, oppressed, and working classes, constitute the lower stratum of society. The semi-wealthy, learned, enslavers, oppressors, and dictating classes, form the second or transition stratum; and the rich, intelligent, enslaving, oppressing, and idle classes, form the third stratum, and serve to complete the body of Mankind. The poor are distributed among all the nations of the earth, They are those who are born amid circumstances opposed to their nature and its requirements. They are those who have necessities unsupplied, desires ungratified, and affections uncared for. They are the degraded, the down-trodden, the forsaken and unappreciated of the land. They are the despised, the weak, the wretched, and the repulsed, of all others that compose the human race. Inferior circumstances produce inferior effects; hence the poor are also ignorant. And because they are uneducated, they are the more easily chained in the degrading shackles of superstition, and enslaved by laws imposed by government. They are imbecile, and hence are fit subjects to bear the burden and weight of the upper classes; and feeling impressed that they are performing their duty, they submit to arbitrary and tyrannical government . Inferior circumstances not only create these effects, but also slavery. Millions that belong to the first part of the race, are existing under the most oppressive slavery, and are compelled to do honor to those who oppress them. Their thoughts are restricted, and their innate powers are crushed by those who hold them in bondage for the purpose of perpetuating the darkness of degradation to which...
