Defence lawyer Bennie Rosato has always known that there was some mystery about her father - of whom she knows nothing but his name. Until she takes the case of her life...Summoned to prison by a woman on a capital charge of murder, Bennie shockingly discovers that she has a twin sister, Alice Connolly. But Bennie isn't entirely convinced that she's her sister or that she's innocent of murder...Scottoline evokes the moral dilemmas of the defence lawyer, the hothouse violence of a women's prison and the intellectual excitement of putting together a defence from scratch.
