Confederate Captain John Yates Beall is facing death on the gallows. Convicted of acting as a spying and guerrilla behind Union lines, he faces the greatest challenge of his life. Will he divulge Confederate plans in a deal to spare his own life? Will the Confederate government and his friends be able to successfully intercede on his behalf with President Lincoln? Will Lincoln bow to political pressure from within his administration and let the young Captain die? Or, will John Yates Beall die on the gallows, a victim of his own honor and integrity?
