Autumn heralds the coming of the season of change. It is the time in nature when the leaves begin to fall, the animals prepare for winter and we slowly start to prepare for our own winter hibernation. Who better to guide us through this time of preparation and change than the Animals themselves. This issue we've tapped into the energy of nature and the wisdom of animals to give you some inSight into the magic of animals and how working with them can prepare you for what is to come. With a variety of inspiring articles to choose from, I'm sure you will find something that works for you.
