Melted By The Bear Amira Rain

In a world where fertile women are now cryogenically frozen in order to help future civilizations reproduce, Aria English finds herself as the latest woman to be MELTED after thousands of years in the freezer and she is about to awake into a world that is vastly different from the one she left behind. Especially since Aria finds that the man who melted her is not even human and is actually a WereBear Alpha named Cormack. He is strong, handsome and dreamy. The type of man that any woman would want to mate with. However, it seems that Aria was actually melted earlier than planned. Now with no current need for her she might have to work hard to prevent being frozen once again and left for future generations. Especially, since being re-frozen is very dangerous. Now with her very presence causing tensions amongst his tribe, Cormack has the difficult task of choosing between Aria's life or the life of his people and something has to give...
