El Yacaré, tertulias de un militar puertorriqueño (Spanish Edition) Angel L. Santos Morales

Todo empezó cuando un día me desperté con un gran sentido de remordimiento por no conocer bien mi propia lengua. Hacia tiempo que cargaba con este sentir pero no fue hasta esa mañana de marzo que puse en marcha mi plan. Era uno bien sencillo; compra un diccionario y te aprendes diez palabras al día. Estoy convencido que el vocabulario es la base de todo idioma. Resulta que el único diccionario que tenían ese día era uno de sinónimos, antónimos y parónimos, el resto es historia. No se si es por mi condición de dislexia que empiezo todo libro por la ultima página o si ya de costumbre para de esa forma familiarizarme con el tema y luego de varias vueltas regreso a la primera página y comienzo a leer con propósito. Empecé por la "Z" y al llegar a la "Y" me encontré con la palabra "yacaré" donde surge el titulo de estas tertulias. Al final de los cuentos defino los sinónimos usados. Estoy seguro que según vas leyendo podrás identificar algún conocido tuyo con los personajes del cuento. Rebelde, gruñón, disléxico y si, fui analfabeta funcional hasta que me gradué de la "Inter.", estoy definitivamente orgulloso de haber nacido aquí y respirar este aire contigo. Hijo de un militar y una bella dama quienes me criaron en el Barrio Contorno de Toa Alta, cerca de donde don Abelardo Díaz Alfaro escribió la historia del Josco.
