A CBA MARKETPLACE reviewer

With the busy years of motherhood and nurturing fulfilled and her daughters settled in college, Anna Marquette is now free to pursue her long-held dream of a career in counseling. With a few days off from studying at semester break, Anna accompanies her husband, Paul, on a business trip and mini-vacation to Orlando.

And then the night that would forever change their lives -

Their love for God and for each other faces the ultimate test as they consider the unimaginable options before them. In the sweltering heat of August, in a nondescript Chicago parking lot, Paul and Anna suddenly know what they are to do. And for a season the painful choice they make will wrench them from each other's arms. Can even this give new meaning to their love?
