After it's revealed that three of the world's Gods are now upon Trivallyn in mortal form, events rapidly become a race between which side will locate them first--those who will protect them, or the Father God's loyalists determined to destroy them all. In the midst of this discovery, Jian begins to understand the deeper nature behind his and Clail's awesome powers, and all this implies of their fates.

Haunted by a recurring vision she's unable to understand, Cheyne is led into the camp of the My'rianessee. Here, she uncovers more truths, about herself and all Trivallyn, that will change the future of the world for them all.
