If you're like me, the last thing you think you need is another devotional. While they have their place and serve a need, (and I may pen one in the future), there is a plethora of those out there. I receive a few daily on my phone that provide daily inspiration and insight that blesses my life. The Journey is not intended to fit into that space. In my mind, it is a 21 day EXPERIENCE that is able to be relived repeatedly, with each encounter yielding its own unique fruit. I know people who travel to the same place every year on vacation. While the familiarity provides a framework for comfort, each year they return energized and refreshed as they relate some NEW experience they had on their journey. Well, off you go! May the Lord bless you on your Journey!
