Book 2 of the Mistress Erminegard Suspense Series Louise Luce, a.k.a. Manhattan's Mistress Erminegard, is a simple girl with a whip and a dream. She is also the last one out of every limo--so no one can stare at her "ginormous ass." The spawn of opera singers, Louise possesses a keen ear that helps her both anticipate any client's needs, and solve high profile crimes. Bunker, Bilderberger, Deputy chair of the Trilateral commission, and life-long submissive C. Coates Wilson had always known that "safewords" did not exist in the real world. His beloved Mistress Erminegard must navigate an obstacle course of conspiracy theory, imploding global and real estate markets, international chefs, models, and Other Government Agencies to clear her name when he is murdered. As always, she is assisted by her exclusive clientele: The Chief of Police, the bounty hunter, the Marine Drill Sergeant, and the Broadway star.
