Becky a junior doctor left London and her cheating ex Alec to make a fresh start working in a new hospital. She wanted to meet people and make friends but didn't want a man - not while the pain from breaking up with Alec was still fresh.

But that all changed when she saw Stephan an orthopedic surgeon who fronted a rock band in his spare time. He was handsome, charming and wealthy and had an army of female fans. Becky had never met anyone like Stephan before. Even though she was scared of being hurt again she was drawn to him like a magnet.

After an amazing night with Stephan Becky couldn't have been happier. He was everything she wanted in a man. But things were not at all what they seemed. Stephan had lied to her. She'd been cruelly played and now all she wanted to do was escape from the dream that had become a nightmare.

Wanting to prove to herself that she doesn't need Stephan she accepts an invitation from an older man to a party but soon discovers its no ordinary party...

Excerpt

I was aware that his hand had moved down between my buttocks and was massaging me in time with the rhythm of the music. A thrill passed through me each time his fingers moved. A small voice inside my head told me I shouldn't be doing this, but I ignored it.

For a second I looked to my left as a movement caught my eye. It was Philipa. She'd taken a step forward and was leaning towards me. Before I could react she put one hand on each of my shoulders and kissed me full on the lips. I'd never kissed a girl before and had never wanted to, but I didn't try to stop her.

Get ready for part two of an exciting, hot and erotic roller-coaster ride of a story.

This novella contains adult situations and content.

This book end with a cliffhanger.
