Now Look What You've Done! Cartoons Lee Lorenz

Lee Lorenz has been drawing cartoons ever since he was a youngster, and over the years his work has appeared in practically every American magazine to publish that genre. During the last twenty years, his cartoons have appeared increasingly in the "New Yorker," where his work can now be seen nearly every week. The cartoons in this book, which were all originally published in the "New Yorker," constitute the first collection of Lorenz's work since "Here It Comes," published nearly ten years ago. Since 1973, Lee Lorenz has been the art editor at the "New Yorker." As such, he has had to look through some two thousand cartoons a week. In spite of this, he has retained some vestiges of humor, as can be seen in this marvelous collection.
