The year was 1967. The election season would begin March 12th, 1968 with the New Hampshire presidential primary. Who could be convinced to run, what campaign could be organized that could get the attention of the President of the United States? 1968*McCarthy*New Hampshire is the story of the campaign that changed a political year, challenged national policy, brought thousands to political activity, and, today, influences the careers and consciences of a generation of Americans and their descendants.
