Mono Volume Two edited

Published following a successful Kickstarter campaign, this second volume gathers work by some of the leading names in black and white photography today. There was a time when black and white was a technical requirement, yet those who choose to operate in the medium at present differentiate themselves from the ever increasing flood of images produced globally via smartphones, social media networks, and the Internet. The relevance of this formal and aesthetic choice is paramount. The volume includes work by more than 25 practitioners, including Daido Moriyama, Lorenzo Castore, Sohrab Hura, Alexia Monduit, Gert Jochems, Magdalena Switek, and others.
