Maple Hills, Michigan. Known by some as America's Safest City. Until five separate homicides in as many months stresses the small local police department to its limit. And the most recent and brutal murder looks like the work of a serial killer.

Stretched thin and desperate for help, the Maple Hills PD calls in the FBI's Behavioral Analysis Unit.

Agent Troy Mortimer has a profile of the killer prepared before the plane lands. But when strange visions and false memories plague him after he arrives in Maple Hills, he begins to doubt not only his profile—he doubts his sanity.

Now he must fight through worsening delusions while he hurries to stop the list of victims from growing. But how can you catch a killer when you can't trust your own mind?

THE MIND'S LIE kicks off a brand new series of paranormal thrillers written by the creator of The Lockman Chronicles!
