Everyone knows Uk general elections aren't what they used to be. British politics, Westminster in particular, is mired in an integrity crisis. Enter Real Alternative, a bold new party with a youthful, charismatic leader and a radical manifesto. Yet Ra may be more vulnerable than it looks. Who's funding it? No one quite knows. If its backers are foreign, that would constitute a clear breach of electoral commission rules. Which would please a lot of people in Whitehall. Agent John Mordred is assigned to investigate. What looks at first like a routine probe becomes much more when he discovers that his own sister and the party's leader are in love. And especially when he finds out that, for reasons unknown, someone determined and very ruthless wants them dead.
