New addition September 2015

Lizzie Brand - a glamorous self-assured hot stone therapist - is sailing back to England after living the past eleven years in Germany. Lizzie wants nothing more than to start her new job at a London Spa Resort, and trace her long lost brother but finds herself in unforeseen circumstances, only to be allured by the hero.

Already running away from one diamond ring, will she have to resist another?

Reuben Portland - a husky yet sensual alpha male, is out to fill his rundown mansion, with glamorous staff. Reuben a compelling-charmer goes to all lengths to get what he wants, and Lizzie Brand is within his grasp on-board Ship Davina, on return from a business trip.

Emotions electric, blowing fuses, sparking fires and setting alight red-hot passion that surprises everyone!!! Although this book resembles a Mills and Boon type romance, it is completely heart warming, passionate, individual, and full of body with real life like characters.

This book is close to my heart, although fiction, it also contains some real life experiences of my own! I dedicate this book to my wonderful mother, Martha Elizabeth Helen Richards, born in Hamburg, who then, spent the rest of her life loving and caring for her children in England.
