Walking Marina D. R. Hildebrand

Walking Marina is the story of Danny Ward, a disheartened teenager working nights at a steel mill in Gary, Indiana, who is abruptly converted into a fashion model in New York City.

Represented by the behemoth Edge Models, anticipation concerning him soars. But as Danny fails to meet expectations, and as the unforgiving industry loses its appeal, Danny finds himself falling deeper into a subculture that only insiders know well enough not to envy.

Here, in the underworld of the male modeling industry, Danny meets Marina, esteemed socialite and fashion devotee. Though otherwise incompatible, each has a need the other can fulfill: Marina, a (walking) companion; Danny, an income.

Marina initially employs Danny to be her exercise partner. But as her libertine cravings overcome her she lures Danny further off the trails of Central Park, beyond the safety of his morals, and into a world he never imagined.

D. R. Hildebrand was born and raised in Philadelphia. He lives in New York, where he writes and models.
