As Young As We Feel: A Novel (The Four Lindas) Melody Carlson

Once upon a time in the little town on the Oregon coast, there were four Lindas—all in the same first-grade classroom. So they decided to go by their middle names. And form a club. And be friends forever. But that was 47 years and four lives ago. Now a class reunion has brought them all—the New York lawyer, the empty nester, the frustrated artist, and the aging starlet—together again in their old hometown, at a crossroads in their lives. They're about to explore the invigorating reality that even the most eventful life has second acts...and there's no statute of limitations on friendship.
