DUFF (Portuguese Edition) Kody Keplinger

Com humor e personagens surpreendentes, Kody Keplinger aborda, em seu primeiro romance, questões como amizade, autoestima e competição feminina

Em um grupo de amigas, a DUFF - sigla para Designated Ugly Fat Friend - é aquela que não se destaca, a menos atraente da turma. Ela não se enquadra nos padrões de beleza tradicionais, ou se preocupa menos com o visual, mas nem por isso deixa de ter seus encantos. Bianca Piper é esse tipo de garota. E estava muito bem, até que Wesley Rush, o pegador da escola, veio puxar conversa dizendo que ser legal com a DUFF o ajudaria a se dar bem com suas amigas Casey e Jessica. A partir de então, Bianca começa a se questionar: ela seria a amiga feia?

As vantagens e as desvantagens de ser uma DUFF, o que leva alguém a pensar que é uma e outras dúvidas começam a ocupar os pensamentos de Bianca e só não dominam sua cabeça porque ela tem problemas maiores. O casamento de seus pais não vai bem e no dia em que ela descobre que eles estão se divorciando, decide sair com suas amigas para esquecer. Enquanto Casey e Jess se divertem, Bianca encontra Wesley e, num impulso, o beija.

Os dois começam uma espécie de inimizade colorida. Bianca acha Wesley um galinha, que se aproveita da beleza e do dinheiro para ficar com o maior número de meninas possível, mas, no fundo, sente-se atraída por ele. Wesley é um cara amigável e não perde uma oportunidade de ficar com ela, ainda que continue chamando Bianca de DUFF. Com a convivência, os dois descobrem que as aparências enganam.

Bianca Piper é uma protagonista independente, boa aluna, cínica e descolada. Com senso de humor e diálogos afiados, Kody Keplinger criou um romance sobre a amizade e o amor próprio, que aborda com leveza questões como a competição entre as meninas e a importância dada às aparências. Ao enfrentar seus problemas, Bianca amadurece e descobre que os rótulos que colocamos uns nos outros são armadilhas muito perigosas.

DUFF figurou em segundo lugar na lista do New York Times de Young Adult, além de ter estreado nos cinemas brasileiros em 2015.
