Will they risk everything to save a child's life?

When their young son falls deathly ill, Emma and Bret have no other recourse but to leave their Amish community and seek the help of traditional medicine.

Their bold choice will lead them directly to Alan, whose heart still pines for Emma. Reconciling his feelings for her to save the child she bore with Bret will be difficult. Wanting to shield her from all that ails her, will become all that matters to Bret.

Emma's journey to save her son could potentially be fatal. Disappointment and tragedy may be inevitable, she knows, but what she didn't expect was how torn she'd feel about her decision and how difficult it would be to see Alan again.

In this final installment of Amish Freedom Series is life, gut-wrenching decisions will have to be made. Hearts may be broken. Nothing will be guaranteed and answers may be too difficult to come by.
