A collection of favorite traditional pieced patterns plus an enchanting collection of original applique designs, all chosen to delight children--to inspire quilters who love children Nursery rhymes, Bible stories, American history, and children's lore are among the sources of designs for more than 50 quilts. The pieced patterns are all scaled to appealing "baby" proportions. Applique patterns span the full range of children's interests, from traditional Mother Goose to the very contemporary space shuttle. This is a book that quilters can grow into. Beginning quilters will find complete instructions in the art of quilt making and many patterns with which to practice and polish their skills. Other patterns will challenge even the most experienced quilters. Innovative top arrangements are complemented by a selection of attractive borders and quilting patterns designed especially for the quilts in this book. Most pattern pieces are full-sized for convenient use, and instructions are given for quilts from crib to twin-bed size: approachable and rewarding projects for all needleworkers.
