Colorado Springs, Colorado, is a small but picturesque city nestled below the Rocky Mountain Front amid strikingly beautiful parklands such as Monument Valley Park and Garden of the Gods. The city's historic past is preserved in elegant turn-of-the-century homes, the downtown district of Old Colorado City, and the grounds of the internationally famous and luxurious Broadmoor Hotel complex. With Walking Colorado Springs in hand, you can enjoy 18 of the best walks in and around the city. This one-of-a-kind guide offers firsthand descriptions, maps, and graphic trip planning information for easy 30-minute strolls to half-day excursions. There are walks through the downtown area and adjacent parks as well as more rigorous outings on trails through spectacular natural parks. Many walks start from the doorsteps of major hotels or are accessible via public transportation. If you are renting a car, all walks are within minutes of the downtown area and airport. Tips on street savvy, safety, and public transportation make this guide a must for visitor, business travelers, and residents alike.
